History of Thanksgiving

New England and Canada originally saw “Thanksgivings,” days of prayer for such blessings as safe journeys, military victories, or abundant harvests. Americans model the Thanksgiving holiday on a 1621 harvest feast shared between English colonists and the Wampanoag.

Why Do We Eat Turkey For Thanksgiving?

Part of the reason turkeys are eaten for Thanksgiving is because they are plentiful and delicious. Also, one turkey can feed an entire family. A third reason turkeys are eaten for Thanksgiving are because they don't have much other purpose like a cow or a chicken.

Celebrating...

World Kindness

Day!

On Sunday, November 13, 2022, celebrate the national holiday World Kindness Day! To make yourself a part of it, you could pick up trash around town, do a bit of extra chores to help your parents out, or you could donate food or clothing items to a nearby shelter! Any way to show your kindness counts! So do YOUR part and be a part of the kindness act!

Veterans Day 2022!

Also called Armistice Day, Veterans Day has been celebrated for 67 years! That's a long time, right? People have participated in parades, sent cards to veterans, and have even volunteered for community services! All of these activities are only small ways to say thank you to the veterans of our beloved country! Join in on the celebration!

Celebrate YOUR Unique Talent! Pt. 1

On November 24th, the world takes a chance to celebrate all of the people who have acquired unique skills and talents, whether that be painting, singing, playing a musical instrument, and more!

Located on the next page is a collection of original characters drawn by Miley Hurley! Check them out!

Celebrate YOUR Unique Talent! Pt. 2

Interesting Facts

We wouldn't recognize an Election Day about 200 years ago. The Constitution didn't spell out when Election Day was.

Book Review

Title: Uglies

Author: Scott Westerfeld

Genre: Science Fiction and Young Adult Fiction

Deanna Vincent's review, "This book keeps you wanting to read more and more. It makes you think about what type of world they are living in. Also, it makes you think what they would look like if they were pretty. It is a very good book."

Daylight Savings

The first Saturday in November we fall back an hour. Daylight Savings is time as adjusted to achieve longer evening daylight in summer by setting the clocks an hour ahead of the standard time. Daylight Savings is on November 6th this year. The next time is March 12th, 2023.

Things the Staff Are Thankful For

Arianna Falcon - My non-existent brain.

Angeli Johnson - My dogs and my family.

Deanna Vincent - Chase March.

Isabella Dea - My family and friends.

Luci Stolzenburg - My nephew and dogs.

Miley Hurley - My pets.

Violet Loeffler - My family.

Mrs. Workman - My family and my many years of teaching kids, and hopefully making a positive impact in their lives.
